WHAT IS HOBBY KIDS TV?

Not only is the Hobby family rambunctious, they're animals! Not literally of course, but the three siblings, known as HobbyPig, HobbyFrog and HobbyBear can be wild fun on their unique family channel.

In daily videos co-hosted by their parents, Hobby Mom and HobbyDad, they focus on toy reviews, video games, science experiments and other family-oriented topics. Their YouTube channel, HobbyKidsTV, is an outlet for creativity and imagination.

They are currently working on an original animated series with Butch Hartman, the man behind Danny Phantom and The Fairly OddParents, called HobbyKids Adventures.
